

Today is the Sixth Sunday of Easter. Our Gospel this week continues in John Chapter 14. Take a few minutes to read this Gospel. Jesus is teaching His disciples here - and preparing them for what will come - but He is also speaking directly to you and I. Jesus tells us that when we love Him, and follow His commandments, we will never be alone. He promises in this Gospel to ask God to send a helper, an "advocate", to be with them always.

This advocate is the Holy Spirit. We learn when we read and pray on this Gospel that our Heavenly Father and Jesus will always give us what we need to sustain us! We simply have to take the time to sit in silence and pray.

We are living in a unique time, but we are never alone. The Gospel we read last week begins with Jesus saying, "Do not let your hearts be troubled" (John 14:1). Jesus is always with us - he will send us the Holy Spirit always to help us. God does not always give us what we pray for, but he will give us what we need to sustain us and guide us. Share this prayer to the Holy Spirit with your family this week.
